The

Glad Refrain

for

The Sunday School.

A NEW COLLECTION OF

SONGS FOR WORSHIP.

Edited by

ROBERT LOWRY and W. HOWARD DOANE.

BOTH YOUNG MEN, AND MAIDENS; OLD MEN, AND CHILDREN: LET THEM PRAISE THE NAME OF THE LORD.—Ps. cxlviii., 12, 13.

Published in Separate Editions of Round and Character Notes.

BIGLOW & MAIN,

76 East Ninth Street, New York. | 81 Randolph Street, Chicago.

MAY BE ORDERED THROUGH BOOKSELLERS AND MUSIC DEALERS.

SALUTATION.

Glad Refrain is in the line of the successful books edited by the same authors.

Glad Refrain takes up the old Gospel theme—CHRIST in His character and His work.

Glad Refrain is intended for practical use in the Song Service of the Sunday School.

Glad Refrain includes hymns both for the young and for grown-up people.

Glad Refrain presents music such as Sunday Schools delight to sing.

Glad Refrain is projected on a grade that recognizes an improved taste in the material for the Service of Song.

Glad Refrain does not contain any music that has the soul taken out of it by excess of technical polishing.

1. The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread:

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.

Amen.

2. Opening Service.

SUPERINTENDENT.—The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul:

School.—The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple:

SUPT.—The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart:

School.—The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes:

SUPT.—The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever:

School.—The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

SUPT.—More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold;

School.—Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

SUPT.—Moreover, by them is thy servant warned:

School.—And in keeping of them there is great reward.

SUPT.—Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight,

School.—O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

3. Opening Service.

SUPT.—O come let us sing unto the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation.

School.—Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

SUPT.—They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles;

School.—They shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.

SUPT.—It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord.

School.—Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks; for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare.

SUPT.—Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

School.—O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

SUPT.—Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may keep thy word.

School.—Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

SUPT.—Quicken thou me according to thy word.

School.—Make me to understand the way of thy precepts.

SUPT.—Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes, and I shall keep it unto the end.

School.—Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law: yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

4. Responsive Service.

SUPT.—Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

School.—Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

SUPT.—Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

School.—Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

SUPT.—Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

School.—Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

SUPT.—Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

School.—Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

SUPT.—Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

School.—Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

5. Missionary Service.

SUPT.—Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

School.—O let the nations be glad, and sing for joy; for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

SUPT.—Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

School.—Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our God, shall bless us.

SUPT.—God shall bless us, and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

School.—Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

SUPT.—Behold my servant, whom I uphold, mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

School.—He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

SUPT.—God hath made of one blood all nations of men, to dwell on all the face of the earth.

School.—Whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD, shall be saved.

6. Closing Service.

SUPT.—Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory for ever and ever.

School.—Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

SUPT.—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

School.—Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word.

SUPT.—Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

School.—At evening time it shall be light.

SUPT.—The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

School.—He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

7. Closing Service.

SUPT.—All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

School.—Blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

SUPT.—Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom.

School.—Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

SUPT.—From the rising of the sun, unto the going down of the same, the Lord's name is to be praised.

School.—Unto thee shall the vow be performed.

SUPT.—Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

School.—The Lord bless thee, and keep thee.

Wait on the Lord. Concluded.

Blessed Sabbath.

w. s.

(Primary Song.)

WM. STEVENSON.

1. Bless-ed Sabbath, source of pleasure, Bright the hours and free from care;
 2. Pleasant smiles and friendly greetings, Sweetest hymns of love and praise,
 3. All these earthly Sabbaths end-ed, Joys im-mor-tal will be giv'n:

Joys they bring us with-out measure, Pur-est joys that all may share.
 Pre-cious les-sons, too, re-peat-ing, Make the Sabbath best of days.
 And our songs, with an-gels blend-ed, Swell the har-mo-ny of heav'n.

CHORUS.

We are hap-py, yes, we're hap-py; Ev-ery rule we will o-bey;

We are hap-py, O, so hap-py, In our Sun-day School to-day.

Who'll be Sowing?

N. H. ALBAUGH.

W. H. DOANE.

1. Who'll be sowing, who'll be sowing, Sow-ing pre-cious gold-en grain,
 2. Who'll be sowing seeds of kindness Right and left a-long the way,
 3. Who'll be sowing deeds of mercy, Sowing through life's checkered vale.
 4. May we all be sow-ing, reaping, On-ly best of life's fair field.

In the val-ley, on the hillside, Wide a-cross the fer-tile plain?
 At the home hearth, by the sick couch, Here and there where'er we stray?
 Love and hon-or, virt-ue, goodness, Mighty truth that must pre-vail?
 So that, in the fi-nal harvest, We may reap in heaven's bright field.

ROBERT LOWRY.

1. Yes, I'm com-ing home to Je-sus, for His lov-ing call I've heard,
2. I am guilt-y, vile, and help-less, but 'tis such He came to save;
3. O the joy of full sal-va-tion! O the depth of love di-vine!

And my soul would glad-ly hast-en now to rest up-on His word;
'Twas for sin-ners lost and ru-ined that His pre-cious life He gave;
It is sweet to be for-giv-en, sweet to know that He is mine;

Tho' my sins have been as crim-son, still His blood can make me white;
Now in Him a-lone I'm trust-ing, now to Him I look for light;
Now to Him my soul is cling-ing, leans my weakness on His might;

I will trust His pre-cious promise; I am com-ing home to-night.
From the paths of sin and dark-ness I am com-ing home to-night.
I have found my Lord and Sav-iour; I am com-ing home to-night.

3. No words like those of Je-sus Can give me joy and rest;
4. For-ev-er and for-ev-er, While all the a-ges roll,

No oth-er friend but Je-sus, For me can in-ter-cede.....
 No hand like that of Je-sus Can smooth life's devious way.....
 No love like that of Je-sus Can make me tru-ly blest.....
 His name shall be my watchword, His glo-ry fill my soul.....

CHORUS.

I'll praise Him while I live; My dai-ly song shall be,

I'll praise Him, praise Him, while I live, while I live; My song, my daily song shall be,

I love my bless-ed Sav-iour, Be-cause He first loved me.

1. There is work to do for Je - sus, Yes, a glorious work to do,
 2. There is work to do for Je - sus; And we hear the Sav - iour say,
 3. Yes, there's work to do for Je - sus; Who will an - swer to the call?

For a har - vest ful - ly ripened, Rich and gold - en, lies in view;
 "Why art stand - ing here so i - dle, At the noontide on the way?
 See! the vint - age is a - bundant, There is work to do for all;

With a prayer to God our Fa - ther, Let us all the work pur - sue,
 E - ven now I will ac - cept thee, With the rest thy wa - ges pay;
 God commands that we should la - bor, Tho' the task our hearts ap - pall;

For our ris - en Lord is call - ing, And the har - vest - ers are few.
 Go and la - bor in my vine - yard Till the clos - ing of the day."

Hymns.

No. 160. Tune, CORONATION.

- 1 All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all.
- 2 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.
- 3 O that with yonder sacred throng,
We at His feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown Him Lord of all.

No. 161. Tune, DENNIS.

- 1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
- 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims, are one,
Our comforts and our cares.
- 3 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.

No. 162. Tune, TOPLADY.

- 1 Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From Thy wounded side which flowed,
Be of sin a double cure,
Save from wrath and make me pure.
- 2 Could my tears forever flow,
Could my zeal no languor know—
This for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and Thou alone;
In my hand no price I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling.

No. 163. Tune, BEAUTIFUL RIVER.

- 1 Shall we gather at the river
Where bright angel feet have trod;
With its crystal tide forever
Flowing from the throne of God?
- CHO.—Yes, we'll gather at the river,
The beautiful, the beautiful river—
Gather with the saints at the river
That flows from the throne of God.
- 2 Soon we'll reach the shining river,
Soon our pilgrimage will cease;
Soon our happy hearts will quiver
With the melody of peace.
- CHO.—Yes, we'll gather, &c.

No. 164. Tune, BROWN.

- 1 I love to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.
- 2 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,—
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On Him whom I adore.

No. 165. Tune, SWEET HOUR.

- 1 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of
prayer!
That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me at my Father's throne
Make all my wants and wishes known;
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer.
- 2 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of
prayer!
May I thy consolation share,
Till, from Mount Pisgah's lofty height,
I view my home, and take my flight;
This robe of flesh I'll drop, and rise
To seize the everlasting prize;
And shout, while passing through the air,
Farewell, farewell, sweet hour of prayer!

No. 66. Tune, MARTYN.

- 1 Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to Thy bosom fly,
While the billows near me roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life be past;
Safe into the haven guide;
O receive my soul at last.
- 2 Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in Thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind;
Just and holy is Thy name,
I am all unrighteousness;
Vile and full of sin I am—
Thou art full of truth and grace.

No. 167. Tune, PRECIOUS NAME.

- 1 Take the name of Jesus with you,
Child of sorrow and of woe—
It will joy and comfort give you,
Take it, then, where'er you go.
- CHO. |: Precious name, O how sweet,
Hope of earth and joy of heaven. :|
- 2 Take the name of Jesus ever,
As a shield from every snare;
If temptations round you gather,
Breathe that Holy Name in prayer.

No. 168. Tune, WEBB.

- 1 The morning light is breaking,
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.
- 2 Rich dews of grace come o'er us,
In many a gentle shower,
And brighter scenes before us
Are opening every hour;
Each cry to heaven going
Abundant answer brings,
And heavenly gales are blowing
With peace upon their wings.

INDEX OF SUBJECTS.

This Index is of a very general character. A careful examination of the book will enable the Leader to select many hymns for special use which are not given in minute analysis of subjects. It is intended that suitable hymns shall be found for any occasion likely to arise in the work of the Sunday School. The Numbers refer to the hymns, not the pages.
